Terms and Conditions of Sale

Payment

We accept MasterCard and Visa for immediate shipments. Personal checks, company checks and money orders are all accepted but may delay your shipment until we have bank approval. If needed we can ship COD; of course, you will not be charged until your shipment is made. Please contact us for a credit application or use the one provided in this catalog.

Same Day Shipments

For in stock orders, if we get your order prior to 12:00 P.M. (CST) we can ship that day.

Delivery Schedules

All shipments are FOB (Freight On Buyer) Logansport, IN. We will work with you to find the cheapest and most timely freight. If you have a freight company that you wish us to use, just let us know. If you do not have a company we will use the contacts we have and you will enjoy our discounts, if applicable, with that trucking company. You have our assurance that we will work toward finding the best value and discuss it with you.

Returns and Exchange

Parts that have to be returned must first have a written authorization from Building Products Development, Inc. Any part returned without authorization or sent COD will be refused. We can only accept unused product in full boxes of original packaging. Returns for any reason other than defective manufacture or incorrectly shipped product will be charged a 20% restocking fee.

Damaged Merchandise

All parts are packaged so no damage will occur during shipment. There are times that shipping and trucking companies do damage our product. If this does occur, refuse the shipment and mark the Bill of Lading as damaged. Photos of the damage will help with the claim. Contact us and we will help you as much as we can to get your damage claim processed, but it is important to keep as much information as possible. Also, damage must be noticed immediately! It is unlikely that any shipping company will process a delayed claim.

Defective Merchandise

It is highly unlikely that you would ever need to return a product due to workmanship, since our ISO certified facility has stringent quality controls. But error can slip past and we will make sure that you will be completely satisfied with your purchase. Please inform us within 30 days of shipment and before installation that you have a problem with the product provided and we will correct it. Many complaints relate to clip to panel fit-up which is often caused by out of tolerance panels. Prior to returning clips that do not fit properly, check to be sure the rollformer is producing the panels within the manufacturer's specified tolerances.
